The book i received was a photo copy of the original old book. I asked for a revised replacement for the original product and still got the same photocopied book that looked like a school textbook!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Sigi De Francescal love this author's writing. It is very dated but covers important issues.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Not exactly electricBy Philip SandozI have to say I love Marie Corelli's brand of Victorian melodrama, but I did find this one, with its espousal of the "electric" power that makes Christianity practical, a little bit silly; but, there again, H. G. Wells took people to the moon without knowing that they would die through lack of atmosphere and Conan-Doyle believed in fairies, so why can't we enjoy a story that is simply beautifully written, albeit not scientifically acceptable. A lovely, though naive fable.
