We liked the simple directions for walking By Liz Croft My husband and I are 60-somethings and we wanted a simple guide to use at our leisure and this did fit the bill. We liked the simple directions for walking. We did stray from the plan a few times, which is expected. My only suggestion would be to include stops on the way for restroom opportunities, which is the main reason why we strayed! But, that gave us the perfect excuse to enjoy that wonderful coffee and muffin from a bakery we couldn't resist! Do Savannah on foot for at least part of your visit because there are so many little enjoyments that are missed when you take the trolley or buggy. One resident invited us into their garden walkway to admire the beautiful blooms and plantings. Another time we chatted with two native born residents when we were taking a break under the shady gazebo at Johnson Square. We ended one of our walks with a cold draft beer at a locals' bar off the beaten track. What a treat! We learned a lot there as you can imagine!³ of 3 people found the following review helpful.
