AZTourBookBy PatInteresting book, you can tell by the way the book is written that is was from a different time. But more important is the history the book depicts and pictures of the time.

This is a reprint of the first book of road maps and touring information ever published in Arizona. To obtain and "absolutely authentic" data for the maps, the compilers had to travel over 10,000 miles by automobile in and around 1913. The book is profusely illustrated with historical photographs and maps drawings with points of interest as well as descriptive information and vintage advertisements.
