Christine Maxa : Arizona's Best Autumn Color 50 Great Hikes before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Arizona's Best Autumn Color 50 Great Hikes:

I'd love to see an updated version published as this one is many years old.6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. The Other ArizonaBy A Customer This is the book for those who see Arizona as only brown - brown dirt, brown animals, brown mountains. Arizona is one of the most diverse beautiful areas on the planet, as this book attests. Two things, though - The area code in northern Arizona is no longer 520, it is 928. And the book suggests that all of Coconino National Forest requires a fee to park - this is NOT true. The only area of the Coc that requires a parking permit anywhere is in the Sedona/Oak Creek Canyon area.

Arizona writer and photographer Christine Maxa leads hikers of all skill levels to the best fall color around the state of Arizona. This book, the only one on where to find Arizona's fall color, will have you exploring from late September to early December. Plus, Maxa shares insight and interesting facts about natural and cultural history along the trails.
