Marguerite Madison Aronowitz : Art Treasures and Museums In and Around Prescott, Arizona before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Art Treasures and Museums In and Around Prescott, Arizona:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Thoroughly researchedBy A CustomerThis book is a wonderful guide to both well-known and less popular points of interest in the Prescott area. The historical detail has obviously been well researched and is very fascinating, making the book an invaluable, must-have companion. The accompanying photographic documentation is also very complete. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Fantastic Book By A Customer This book is a great companion while traveling to Prescott. It has historical insights, beautiful photographs and is very detailed with interesting facts about the Prescott area.

Comprehensive guide to public art (sculptures/bronzes, paintings) and museums in picturesque Prescott, Arizona. Also includes: 1) Brief histories of Prescott, Ft. Whipple, Yavapai-Prescott Native American Indians, and fine art metal casting; 2) Biographies of Solon Borglum, Mary Colter, Kate Cory, Paul Coze, Sharlot Hall, Buckey O'Neill and George Phippen; 3) Excursions to museums and areas of historic interest in central and northern Arizona, including National Parks and Monuments. Over 170 photos. Fully indexed. Excellent guidebook and/or gift book.

"...A wonderfully comprehensive reference book of history, sites and heritage in the Prescott area... Invaluable..." -- Sandy Moss, Arts and Entertainment Editor, The Daily Courier, Prescott Arizona, May 1, 2001 I intend to take this wonderful book with me the next time I visit one of my favorite cities, Prescott. -- Jana Bommersbach, Phoenix Channel 3 Television morning news, May 22, 2001 It's difficult to imagine how this book could be more complete. It's an excellent guidebook for locals and visitors alike. -- Mary Young, Arizona Senior World newspaper, August 2001 This is the quintessential coffee table book packed full of information. I will enjoy reading it from cover to cover. -- Tonya Mock, The Tonya Mock Show, KUSK TV, Prescott, Arizona, May 22, 2001 About the Author Marguerite Madison Aronowitz, author of Maternity Ward: Final Flight of a WWII Liberator, is a resident of Prescott, Arizona, and a graduate of the University of Minnesota.
