Rosemary Dukelow : At The Crossroads: One Woman's Solo World Tour (Volume 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised At The Crossroads: One Woman's Solo World Tour (Volume 1):

In 2010, at 53-years-old, a career librarian, quit her job, gave up her house and ran away from home. She traveled lightly and cheaply, with no plan. Taking direction from her friends and family following her on her blog, she traveled around the world, usually by land or sea, met some people, got into some jams, and changed her life. The story is funny, light-hearted, and inspirational.
