Boring suggestions By Brendan Bush I've always liked the bay area backroads show because they find some really unique and interesting places that I would never have known about on my own. This deck contains none of them. It is more of a list of national parks in Northern California. There is nothing unique about the destinations given, and more often than not I found that the cards I looked at were places that I have already visited... in some cases on a regular basis. I had hoped that by purchasing this I would be able to just grab a random card and take off on some crazy Saturday adventure. I'm rather dissatisfied. 7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Free AAA Guide Book Better! By Christina BI love watching the Bay Area Backroads TV show. I thought the card deck would be as advertised, toss in your glove compartment and off you go! There are lots of cards of individual landmarks to visit and one fold out card with a very simple map, but you will still need a real map, lodging book and a restaurant guide to make a nice trip out of any one of the destination cards. I think I will stick to cutting the weekend trip guides out of Sunset and Via magazines. I was dissatisfied with the card set. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent handy format By jim carley Besgoods clip-on sunglasses sharp..work well, and clear vision with them. Bay Area Backroads needs updating. Excellent handy format.
