I live in Punta Gorda, Florida and Christy writes articles in my Charlotte Sun newspaper. Her book will be a great tool for when we want to check out various places to see when out-of-towners come. It's funny, we live here, but don't really know what our state has to offer! We can't wait until we can put her experiences to good use. And her experiences are all close by, a day trip, but I think we'll be taking the camper on more exploratory trips now that we'll have Christy along for the ride! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I Will keep a copy in my car By David GWow, I've been clipping Christy's columns since I moved to Florida.... what a mess --- this method is way better. I love Christy's writing style and I have looked at some of the places I've already visited -- her reviews are spot on. I will keep a copy in my car send copies to my friends who live or visit Florida love to see new places. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great info for anyone living on the West Coast of ... By Roy Carsen Great info for anyone living on the West Coast of Florida....(retired here or "Snowbirds"). My wife gave me this book as a Christmas gift, and we found many things to do that we never knew existed. Went to Manatee Park today in Fort Myers, another (positive) experience learned about from the book. Thumbing through the book right now, for things to experience tomorrow...(My only caveat, the paper back is very "pricy"... $20+)

Award-winning journalist Christy Feinberg writes for the Sun newspapers based in Port Charlotte, Florida. After graduating from Northern Illinois University, she thawed out by moving to Southwest Florida, where she fell in love with the Gulf beaches and warm weather. Christy and her husband enjoy kayaking, hiking, fishing...living like tourists.
