I'm not sure if he liked it or not, but the item came in very good condition and very promptly.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. For any collection strong in nautical topics in general or Maine historyBy Midwest Book ReviewLOOKING ASTERN: AN ARTIST'S VIEW OF MAINE'S HISTORIC WORKING WATERFRONTS offers Maine residents and any fascinated by nautical life a beautiful pairing of the maritime artist's lovely color paintings paired with details on Maine's evolving waterfront towns and history. Economic, social and architectural details are revealed in a fine coffee table keepsake perfect for any collection strong in nautical topics in general or Maine history.

Nationally recognized maritime artist Loretta Krupinski's meticulously rendered oil paintings show fascinating details of Maine's waterfront towns in their heyday, when fishing, quarrying, and the cargo trade were the backbone of the coastal economy. Historic photographs and text about how Maine people made their living 70 to 150 years ago round out this rich and varied portrayal of a past way of life.
