Ken Thomson : Madison and Dane County Bike Map before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Madison and Dane County Bike Map:

Complete network of bicycle friendly roads and bike trails in Madison, Wisconsin and surrounding Dane County. Updated map has been printed on tear and water resistant paper. All routes have been field tested. Madison, Wisconsin is a bike riders paradise. The city is focused on bicyclists with numerous bike trails and facilities for cyclists of all ability levels. The roads of rural Dane County are almost all paved with many low traffic, scenic options. Terrain varies from extremely hilly to low rolling rural farm roads. Map details: Size: 34" X 22" Side 1: Detail of Madison with bike roads and trails. All routes interconnect to create a network of bike routes that cover the city. Small roads have been grayed out to improve readability. Side 2: Overview of Dane County and a small part of Iowa County to the west. Contour lines give a feel for the hills. All roads and trails interconnect to create a complete network that will take you anywhere in the county. The transition from rural to urban areas is seamless to make route planning easier. Small roads have been grayed out to improve readability.
