Richard George : Managing South African Tourism before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Managing South African Tourism:

Tourism is a rapidly growing field of study in South Africa and tourism management is a compulsory course taught in all three years at the majority of universities of technology and universities. This book meets the need for a good South African book pitched at the right level on this subject. Specialists from various fields ranging from Accounting to Human Resource Management have written comprehensively on various aspects of management as they relate specifically to the tourism industry. The book has a southern African focus and is rendered accessible to students through the use of South African examples and case studies.

About the Author Richard George is a lecturer at the University of Cape Town. Books by the same Author: Marketing South African Tourism 2e, Oxford University Press
