Moses and the Israelites made easierBy MarkoxThis is an excellent map to give me the big picture of the exodus, including the routes that could have made the trip shorter. Along with a map of the world, this makes a handy reference tool.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy MJLExcellent purchase. Would buy again. Fast shipping.

This map shows the 42 camp sites during the Wilderness Journey when the people of God left Egypt in what is called the Exodus and traveled for 40 years around the wilderness before settling into Canaan, the Promised Land. Each of the 42 camp sites is pinpointed on the map as well as the major sites where important events happened. The map shows the routes of ancient Israel, Egypt, and neighboring Jordan in 1:1,153,000 scale.

"I find it fascinating to see the route they took and that God led them on. This map really helps grasp the locations and the story a bit more." Crafty Moms Share blog
About the Author
Rev. Abraham Park
May 17, 1928 - December 17, 2014
Born in Sariwon, Korea

Honorary D.D. from Faith Theological Seminary, USA
Honorary D.D. from Knox Theological Seminary, USA
Former Moderator of the Hap-dong Conservative General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Korea
The late Rev. Abraham Park founded Pyungkang Cheil Presbyterian Church, which currently consists of 70,000 members. His great spiritual legacy continues with his nine published volumes of the History of Redemption series and the 300 churches he had established worldwide. In the early part of his 56-year ministry, Rev. Park spent 3 1/2 years of solitude in a cave atop Mount Jiri, where he devoted day and night to the Bible and prayer. Like the fathers of the early church, Rev. Park's ministry was not founded upon his knowledge acquired from theological discipleship, but upon his life of piety and faith. His insights into the Bible, which he obtained through the powerful illumination of the Holy Spirit, were materialized into the manuscripts that would later become the book series called God's Administration in the History of Redemption. He attested with all his heart and soul that "the Bible is the living Word of God." As a bastion of conservative Reformed faith, he firmly taught that the Word of God is inerrant, infallible, and inspired by the Holy Spirit. Having read the Bible over 1,800 times, he is widely respected for his dedication, charisma, and unrivaled adeptness in biblical exposition. His Bible-centered ministry reached fruition through his congregation whose lives are centered on the church and the Word of God. Their service and dedication for the church, which is the body of Christ, has left indelible impressions on many theologians and ministers from all over the world.
