Nina Gabrielyan : Master of the Grass: Long and short stories (New Russian Writing) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Master of the Grass: Long and short stories (New Russian Writing):

Owner of the Grass is about a disaster befalling a man in love with his own mirror reflection. Moving from the real to the surreal, she invites us to come with her into these two realities, which eventually turn out to be one, a place where the magic and the mundane merge.

"Nina Gabrielyan belongs to the literary land inhabited by Hoffmann, Kafka and Gogol.... She is a virtuoso analyst of nightmares and children's dreams. She feels at home in the fragile space between dream and reality, penetrating such depths of consciousness, where neither daylight nor traditional psychology can reach. Her imagery stays in your mind long after you've finished reading her.... Her poetic and profound stories are about the deep and secret bond existing among all objects and phenomena in this world." -Ludmila Ulitskaya, winner of the Russian Booker Prize
