Sensitive insights and exquisite imageryBy LizajuneI picked up this coffee table type book while vacationing in Wisconsin, opened to a random page, and was immediately charmed by the author's fresh, creative takes on all things woodland. Daily year-long journal entries are full of beautiful, sensitive insights and descriptions. For example: "Everybody hates coyotes with a grave devotion, except other coyotes, of course, and those of us who have ridden their lovely, lonely cries on journeys to the moon, or heard them call out a lakeful of stars on a night that had heretofore known only darkness (Mar. 9). And, "It makes a person wonder where time leaks away to, and how many precious moments slip out the holes in the screen door and down the path of no return." (Aug. 5) If you love nature, exquisite imagery and fine language, get hold of this book!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great deal, amazing book!!!By smhaggartFirst off I have to start by saying that this is an amazing book. I bought it for my godfather because he said it was his favorite, and at some point over the years he loaned it to someone and lost it. He was very happy to get it. It is a unique book that is written in a journal entry format. The entries are thought provoking and warm-hearted. I plan on purchasing another copy for myself. Secondly, the seller was amazing. I received the book way before I expected it, and it was in perfect condition. I am truly impressed by the condition, and I would order from this seller again.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Nostalgic stirring of The Heart and MindBy daveI grew up hunting, fishing, and camping and I still do today. It is a rich heritage that I enjoy so much and have had the pleasure of passing on to my son. For anyone else that does so, or has ever done so, I highly recommend this book. Jerry Wilder will stir your emotions from one extreme to the other. You will laugh and you will cry. You will relive moments that you have known because Jerry speaks in words that are a common bond to all who love and appreciate the great outdoors. My wife gave me the book on the occasion of our anniversary. I have since made it a part of my devotions each morning, reading the designated page for that day. I plan to give the book to a dear friend this Christmas. Thank you Jerry for a wonderful contribution to my and others well being by allowing us to recognize that we are not alone in our emotions and feelings that you so wonderfully have penned in this book.
