In Oklahoma Unforgettable, Kim Baker and John Jernigan capture Oklahoma's allure in 143 outstanding color photographs. The beautiful images are accompanied by an insightful foreword by Donald W. Reeves, the McCasland Chair of Cowboy Culture at the National Cowboy Western Heritage Museum. Baker and Jernigan's travels have taken the two photographers from the swirls of activity in Oklahoma City and Tulsa to the charming towns that make up America's heartland. The images reveal a land of contrasts--wild prairies and thick forests, soaring mesas and mountain trails, sandy deserts and numerous lakes that inspires the imagination. Take a drive with Baker and Jernigan down Route 66 and beyond and discover the Sooner State all over again. Whether lifelong Oklahomans or visitors to the state, readers will treasure Oklahoma Unforgettable for years to come.

About the Author Kim Baker is an Oklahoma-based nature and conservation photographer. Born in Muskogee and raised in Shawnee, Baker lives today in the beautiful rolling hills of southern Lincoln County in central Oklahoma. Baker has photographed the diverse landscapes of Oklahoma for over 25 years, always with the aspiration to bring back unique images that show the true wealth and beauty of the Sooner State. Her photography has been exhibited across the state and is published in many magazines, including Oklahoma Today, Outdoor Oklahoma, and USA TODAY Go Escape. John Jernigan's stunning compositions range from portraiture and landscapes to architectural and interpretive works. His commercial project experience of over 30 years has ranged from editorial to travel and corporate photography. John's images are part of numerous public collections, including the International Photography Hall of Fame, National Endowment of the Arts, Oklahoma State Arts Council, AAA Travel USA, and OGE Energy Corporation, as well as many privately held collections. John continues as a contributing editor for Oklahoma Today magazine and is a proud alumnus of East Texas State University.
