campground in FL. We also had dogs and they often played together. It is a great read with lots of laughs. loved it 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Grab a cup of Tea and Enjoy the Journey By Nancy Thomas A close up look at a journey that begins with a big decision to try a life on the road. An entertaining short story. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Book for RV Owners or Those With Pets Thinking About Getting an RV By Dave in FL I could really relate to all the actions of Bindi and Roxi as we has three Shih Tzus that travel in our RV. This is a nice easy to read book that is written similar to if Wanda was telling you the story in person. I really enjoyed it.

Is a true story of RV adventures including many humorus, interesting and unexpected events by two terriers living fulltime on the road. Starting with how this life changing decision was made, how Wendy and Louie met and acquired Bindi and Roxi and the many roads traveled. The author shares personal events leading to her return to Ohio for personal reasons; an end to her healthcare career leading to retirement and the many unpredictable changes moving forward.

About the Author The author is a retired healthcare executive born in Ohio. Her passion for animals began at an early age since she was an only child raised by a single parent. Her dogs have traveled with her extensively and play a larger part in her charity work visiting nursing homes, assisted living facilities and currently enrolled in Hospice of Florida. She continues to travel fulltime in her RV with her husband, Bindi and Roxi.
