Carter-whiteFor those who like travel that include interesting but not the "normal" tourist attractions and great restaurants this and many other Moon books belong with you and yours. Makes a great gift,

This is the most complete guide to Oregon available. From accommodations to entertainment, it provides tons of options and tips for all travelers. Visit Coos Bay and the Columbia River Gorge, explore Kentucky Falls and the

Twilight Eagle Sanctuary, and read about Civil War connections and geological anomalies. This updated edition has more information on Portland, new chapters on historical events, and information on the only lift-serviced summer skiing in the country. "Comprehensive, readable guide, with 120 pages devoted to the coast." -- Travel Leisure
