For parents traveling to Portland or residents looking for new things to do, this indispensable guide features hundreds of opportunities the whole family can enjoy. The emphasis here is on activities that are fun as well as of cultural and educational interest. From neighborhoods, outdoor parks, and indoor playgrounds to museums, children's theaters, and sports arenas, this guide has it all. Also included are family-friendly restaurants, complete with tips on which host birthday parties. This revised edition contains maps to the city and downtown, a guide to free activities for kids, and fully updated information on individual neighborhoods.
