Dennis Aprill : Paths Less Traveled: The Adirondack Experience for Walkers, Hikers and Climbers of All Ages (Enlarged Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Paths Less Traveled: The Adirondack Experience for Walkers, Hikers and Climbers of All Ages (Enlarged Edition):

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Intriguing and Thorough GuideBy Martin A HoganDennis Aprill is the male equivalent to Barbara McMartin in his narrative style. Like Ms. McMartin, he goes into practical detail in hiking equipment and studiously describes each hike, mentioning things most hikers might miss. It won't be long before he comes out with another edition. An excellent guide.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Excellent book! The High Peaks may be crowded, but have you discovered these 30 other uncrowded and easily accessible trails and mountains where people of all ages can enjoy themselves? Over 100 photographs and dozens of maps and drawings illustrate the scenic highlights, show you in careful detail "how to get there". Plus a special Mountain Diary is included so you can record the details of each "off the beaten path" journey!

"...can be enjoyed by all age groups." -- Watertown Daily Times "...ideal for children, seniors and neophyte hikers...the heart of the book is the hikes themselves... an engaging writer..." -- Syracuse Herald American "This book is a step in the right direction...these are truly paths less traveled." -- New York State Conservationist About the Author Dennis Aprill, a New York licensed guide (#1474), specializes in taking individuals and groups on paths less traveled in the Adirondacks and beyond. He has won numerous writing awards from the Outdoor Writers Association and the Outdoor Writers of Canada.
